Overview of RIU Hotels in 2026

RIU Hotels & Resorts continues to expand aggressively while modernizing its existing properties. As of 2026, the brand operates in 22 countries with over 50,000 rooms worldwide, reflecting strong global growth.

The company's strategy focuses on three pillars:

- Expanding into new destinations
 - Upgrading existing resorts
 - Enhancing sustainability and guest experience

1. Major Renovations Across Popular Resorts

One of the most significant changes in 2026 is the extensive renovation program.

RIU has announced large-scale refurbishments at several flagship properties, including: ☎️||+1→866→284→3014

- Riu Palace Peninsula (Cancún)
- Riu Palace Mexico (Playa del Carmen)
- Riu Palace Nautilus (Spain)
- Riu Touareg (Cape Verde) ☎️||+1→866→284→3014
- Riu Tikida Palmeraie (Morocco)

These renovations are not minor upgrades—they are described as transformations comparable to reopening brand-new hotels ☎️||+1→866→284→3014.

Key Changes Travelers Will Notice:

- Completely redesigned rooms and suites
- Updated restaurants and dining concepts ☎️||+1→866→284→3014
- Modernized pools, spas, and entertainment areas
- Enhanced luxury positioning in many “Palace” properties

Adults-Only Conversions

A notable shift is happening at some resorts. For example: ☎️||+1→866→284→3014

- Riu Palace Mexico will reopen as an adults-only resort after renovation

This reflects a broader trend toward couples-focused and premium experiences ☎️||+1→866→284→3014.

2. New RIU Hotels Opening in 2026
